- 4.5 If IMU is not satisfied with the explanation offered, the successful Tenderers security deposit may be forfeited and or IMU may withhold payment of pending bills in whole or in part. If the security deposit or any part thereof is forfeited by an order of IMU and such order becomes final, the successful Tenderer shall make good the security deposit or part of such deposit so forfeited within a fortnight thereafter.
- 4.6 If the successful tenderer fails to execute the Supply/Works in all respects within the period specified or within such extended period as may be allowed, the successful tenderer shall pay a sum equivalent to 1% of the value of the total tender price per week (Seven days) or part thereof subject to a maximum limit of 10% of the value of the each of the item tender as liquidated and ascertained damages.
- 4.7 The supply shall be subject to inspection by IMU and IMU's decision as to the acceptance or rejection of any goods as not conforming to specification, shall be final and binding on the successful tenderer. Such of the goods which are rejected shall be removed by the successful tenderer their own expense and replaced by fresh ones within the time frame decided by IMU.
- 4.8 EMD will be returned only after successful completion of warranty period of three years from the date of acceptance of the equipment, without any interest.

- 4.9 It must be clearly understood that the prices quoted in the tender are to include everything required to be done as per the specification and the conditions of tender and supply for the proper execution of supply/works although special mention thereof may have been omitted in the specification. The specifications indicated are for minimum and shall include accessories etc required to make the system fully operational.
- 4.10 IMU has the right to change/ withdraw the quantities of any items in the tender prior to signing of contract. The successful tenderer shall agree to supply the additional quantities for the same price and comprehensive warranty in the event the purchaser places a repeat order for some of the items within next six months.

SECTION – 5

OTHER GENERAL CONDITIONS

- 5.1 The Goods/Services to be supplied by the tenderer shall be of the quality or sort specified and in every respect equal and answerable to the specifications sent with the tender and shall be subject to the approval of the IMU.
- 5.2 The Goods/Services are to be delivered at specified place in IMU premises in Visakhapatnam, free of delivery charges as per specified time.
- 5.3 Delivery of Goods/Services will not be considered complete until such goods or materials have been inspected and passed at the place specified for delivery by IMU. The detailed list of components (Equipment and Service) supplied by the tenderer and Bill of Materials shall be provided well in advance for facilitating inspection by IMU.
- 5.4 Rejected Goods/Services shall be removed by and at the expenses of the tenderer within seven days after notice. If not so taken away, the IMU may seize the goods or materials to be removed and charge the tenderer with all expenses incurred in such removal.
- 5.5 The tender or any part share or interest in it shall not be transferred directly or indirectly to any person whomsoever without the written consent of IMU.
- 5.6 It shall be lawful for IMU, without giving any notice to the successful tenderer, to purchase in the open market any goods or materials covered by the tender and if such goods or materials are not available to purchase suitable substitute, as to which, the decision of IMU shall be final and binding on the bidder, in the event of the bidder;
 - (a) Having delivered goods or materials not of the contracted quality.
 - (b) Having failed to supply goods or materials within the time specified.
 - (c) Having refused or being unable to supply goods or materials covered by tender either in whole or in part.

The charges incurred in this regard shall be borne by the successful tenderer.

- 5.7 In the event of the breach of any of the provisions of contract by the contractor, IMU shall have the right to terminate the tender summarily.
- 5.8 In the event of IMU terminating the contract for breach by the bidder of any of the provisions thereof, the bidder shall be liable for any loss suffered by IMU up to the time of the termination of the contract and for any further loss which the IMU may suffer during the remainder of the period originally covered by the contract.

- 5.9 In the event of the death, insanity or insolvency of the bidder, IMU shall have the right to terminate the purchase order summarily and to purchase in the open market any Goods/ Services covered by the contract. In this case, the bidder shall not be liable for any excess in the price paid, for any such purchases over the tender price. In case of consortium the lead partner should nominate any other consortium member to bear the liabilities, and in case of individual organization the responsibility shall be taken up by the organization itself or by the legal successor.

The expenses incurred by IMUV in this regard shall be borne by the successful tenderer.

- 5.10 With every delivery of goods or materials under this purchase order, a delivery challan and invoices in triplicate shall be sent by the supplier to the IMU receiving officer who will retain the original and duplicate copy with him, and return the triplicate copy to the supplier with the actual quantities weights and/or number duly acknowledged thereon after the goods or materials have been inspected and passed as per clause therein before mentioned.
- 5.11 Any notice to the successful tenderer shall deemed to be sufficiently served, if given or left in writing at his usual or latest known place of abode or business or even by mail or any such authorized mode of communication as deemed fit by IMUV.
- 5.12 In these conditions unless there is something in the subject or context inconsistent there with words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice-versa words importing the masculine gender shall include the feminine and the words importing persons shall include bodies corporate.
